Mr. Bob is the editor in-chief of a well known magazine. He has many interests and activities in addition to work: meetings with bright people of politics and art, dancing, fishing, and even stenography and linguistics.

Every week, the magazine publishes a hard Sudoku on the last page. Mr. Bob likes this game too! So, it is a pleasure for him to personally analyze all solutions from the readers. He sits down in his office with a cup of coffee and looks through all the PNG-files with photos of solutions.
